Grand Strand Scale Modelers

- Meeting called to order at 11:00AM with 12 members in attendance and 2 guests from the Charleston Chapter.
- After a discussion it was agreed to advance the possibility of having a joint show in the spring with the Charleston IPMS chapter. Rick Reinert will be the point person with the Charleston Chapter. Roy Johnson, guest, and member of the Charleston club was in attendance to give his input.
- A short business meeting was held.

Next meeting will be on August 21st (3rd Saturday) at the Socastee County Library.at 11:00AM.

It was discussed to upgrade our website in view of the possibility of promoting the Spring show. Phil will make the purchase out of the club's account. Mike will follow up.

Phil Sicard gave the members an excellent slide and video presentation on his military career as a Marine Pilot and government contractor flying helos. Titled: "War Stories with Phil"

Rick volunteered to give the club a presentation on masking canopies at the September meeting.

It was also decided to postpone the contest deadline to the September meeting.

Treasurer's report was given.

- Next was the "Show & Tell" portion of the meeting. Pictures to follow in this newsletter issue.
- The raffle allowed us to add an additional $124.00 to the club's coffers.
- Meeting adjourned around 2:30.

Member Show and Tell

Mike Fleckenstein presented a well constructed Belgian F-104 in 1/72nd scale. Nice cockpit detail

Earl brought along a 55 Chevy with an aftermarket engine and a classic car toy.

Joe Baxter brought along Monogram A-10 in 48th scale. Quite an impressive load out.

Dayne brought along a rather cool looking Trumpeter F-100 in 48th scale.

Dayne also brought along an anime based aircraft

Jim Cabrini brought along a diorama based on “Last of the Mohicans”

Along with his B2 laying an egg.

Herb Horvath showed his Afrika Corps based diorama entitled "WASSER" There is a story in this one.
